

The Gingerbread House Weekly Curriculum

Date: 6/27 - 7/1

Theme: God Bless America

Teachers: Jolly Ranchers

Objective: Children will learn the colors of the flag and about the pride of being an American

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Circle Time <hr/> Language & Literature	Discuss the weekend, and talk about our country and what makes it special Grand Old Flag	What colors are on the flag? God Bless America	Do you go to see fireworks? America the Beautiful	What are the stars and the strips on the flag for? Proud to be an American	Talk about firework and sparkler safety Red, White and Blue, I love you
Art & Fine Motor	Flag handprints	Stamping with stars	Flag wind socks	Bomb pop foot print	Toilet paper fireworks
Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics	Sort the red, white and blue buttons	Red, white and blue glitter bottles	How many red and white stripes are on the flag	What are the stars on the flag for?	Blue berries, strawberries and whipped cream treat
Sensory Gross Motor	Red, white and blue glitter goop Dance party	Sand in the sensory table Follow the leader	Play with whipped cream and food coloring Relay races	Sand in the sensory table Exercise with Erika	Glitter goop Can you stand like the Statue of Liberty?